COZ-Am 20.A 2013)  Rights of arrested and detained persons. (s50. COZ-Am 20.A 2013)	The Government seem to be complicit and its very clear that It directs the police to effect such an arrest.  Hence the silence and lack of reprisals for the police culprits.  Police and Government conflation evident.	Cases such as that of Peter Magombeyi, The MDC three women abducted by the government and the August 1, 2018 shooting have managed to attract a muted response from outside.  However, even that response is not enough in itself.  Day to day low level human rights abuses by the Zimbabwean government are largely going unnoticed and unchallenged.
3.	13 th Apr, 2018	Hererimo GIYA, Eutyachus MAHWEKWE and Tinotenda KUMIRE	Masvingo	Great Zimbabwe University (GZU) students were arrested and charged with public violence for participating in a protest against the hiking of tuition fees at the university.
